NATIONAL FRONT ON WAY BACK!

1997 was the year when the National Front re-asserted itself within the general political scene. In spite of all that was thrown against us by our political opponents the NF has endured and survived and is today much stronger than it was a few years ago. From contesting seats in the General Election through to marching in Dover, from fighting two parliamentary by-elections to protesting at Gerry Adam's visit to Downing Street, the NF did it all in 1997. We did it, not through the slandering of other politicians or groups, not through the use of underhand tactics or dirty tricks but through the sheer dedication and hard work of our loyal membership. This is an honourable testament to the quality of our membership today. There are those who said that the NF would be destroyed during 1997. However, those blows that did not knock us down only served to make us stronger. 1997 saw numerous attempts to destroy our party. All such attempts failed. We received substantial media attention during 1997, which only goes to show that the NF must have been doing something right. Our Party membership is united, and our Leadership are united. No rifts, no splits, just a determination to do the best for our Country. To all who helped make the past year such a success, the NF leadership says 'thank you'. Those who have remained with our party during difficult times will be justly rewarded in the end !

The photograph to the right, as the caption states, is of an NF contingent marching through Dover in protest at the numbers of asylum seekers now claiming residence in the town. Our enemies had previously said that the NF would never hold a march again. Then, when they realised that this assertion would prove to be incorrect as of November 15th, some of them vowed to try and stop the march from taking place. Members of the Labour Party and Unison attempted unsuccessfully to block our path during which fireworks were thrown at NF marchers.

But as is clearly illustrated by the photograph it takes more than a few anarchists to stop the National Front. We enjoy substantial support amongst local people in Dover, many of whom lined the route of the march to give vocal support to our campaign. The people of Dover know only too well that the National Front is the last line of defence in their town. Without the NF there would be no-one left to voice their concerns. The National Front is determined to represent the wishes of the people of this country in the face of an establishment which has consistently shown scant regard for their welfare. With YOUR support the NF will continue to grow so that we can win Britain back for the British people !

RIGHTS FOR WHITES

In the run up to the 1998 local elections, the National Front will be stepping up its latest rights for whites campaign. Our party is not afraid to make this issue fundamental to its election campaigns. All over the country, NF candidates will be standing to ensure that the voice of the silent majority is heard. Are you receiving your full rights and entitlements ? Are you on a council housing waiting list and are sick of being pushed to the back of the queue ? Are you waiting for an operation ? Are you receiving incorrect benefit entitlements ? Are you being treated unfairly by your employer ? If the answer is yes to any of these questions then you should seriously consider supporting the National Front. We are the only political party who are interested in the welfare of the ordinary white people of this country. The other

1997 NF ANNUAL CONFERENCE 1997 NOVEMBER 1st.

The 1997 Annual Conference of the National Front was held on Saturday, November 1st 1997. Members gathered at a hall in the South Midlands to hear party officials discuss various matters relating to their particular departments, as well as to participate in policy debates on Europe, Ulster and Devolution. National Activities Organiser, Terry Blackham, gave an interesting talk regarding forthcoming activities, including a protest against the IRA. (Troops Out) to take place at the end of January. The NF will never give up the Loyalist struggle and will always oppose the enemies of our people, particularly the IRA. YNF Organiser, Wayne Ashcroft, spoke about his plans for this department over the next twelve months, and was awarded the Albert Marriner award after the two violent physical attacks that have been made upon him following his TV appearance on The Cook Report back in June. A report was given regarding the plans for The Flame during 1998, when it is anticipated that the paper should appear bi-monthly. The plans for the NF Internet Site were discussed, and it was agreed that this should be heavily expanded during 1998. Party Leader, John McAuley, gave an impassioned and emotional speech about the situation in our Country today, and how the NF proposes to put things right. Mr. McAuley pointed out that in areas where there had traditionally been an NF presence, then the prevalence of coloured immigration was low. However, when the NF presence had died down, the number of immigrants in the area rapidly increased. He said we must ensure that where there exist NF units, they must be strengthened and new ones must be created. This will be a priority in 1998 !

Since the last issue, we have received a bumper mail bag. Our apologies if for reasons of space, we have not included your letter. However, don't stop sending them in!

Dear Editor,

In response to Carlton TV's Cook Report, I have rarely seen such a biased piece of hack journalism. This programme sank to methods of entrapment, infiltration and lies, in a vain attempt to criminalise the NF. However, what I objected to most of all was the covert filming of the Remembrance Sunday parade, of which I was privileged to take part. That citizens of this country cannot gather in peace and pay their respects to those who gave their lives for freedom of speech and the preservation of British culture, is quite honestly disgusting. Moreover, I have been a member of the NF since 1990, and have never witnessed anything unlawful, or any unruly behaviour among its members, and I urge any potential members not to be put off by Carlton TV's propaganda. It is often said by nationalists that the media is a sinister force, and The Cook Report indicates that they are arch manipulators. I believe that these propagandists represent the greatest danger which decent Britons face today. My advice is to turn off the mind rot that is pumped into our living rooms, and turn on your mind !. After all, this is what the media is really terrified of. In closing, it is rather ironic that the reason I decided to join the NF was the increasing amount of anti-British programming on television !

D. Tyrell, Norfolk.

Sir,

I believe that the circumstances surrounding the death of Diana, Princess of Wales, highlighted once and for all the insidious nature of the establishment media. Here was a woman who over the years was continually hounded by low-life hacks, out to make a quick buck from her. True, she seemed at times to use the media to her own advantage, but one cannot help but feel sympathy for a woman who up until her dying day, probably only really wanted to be left alone. Those swines in the British media who fuelled the flames which contributed to her death should hang their heads in shame.

Wayne Ashcroft, Walsall.

It has been interesting to note the increased interest in the National Front purveyed by the Establishment media over the past few months. A recent incident in the West Midlands typifies this. A local paper published details of an ordinary monthly branch meeting of the Dudley Branch after some traitor gave them a bulletin. The ANL turned up to try and stop the meeting. They failed miserably. The next day the same local paper claimed seven NF members were arrested for driving a van emblazoned with swastikas. I am informed by our organiser that his investigations revealed that not one of these persons was a member of the NF, and that in fact, they were in all probability Reds themselves trying to bring us bad publicity !

Andrew Lewis, Wolverhampton

Dear Flame,

What a shock ! Mr. Roger Cook decides to have a dig at your patriotic and truthful speaking party. It makes me sick. Instead of chasing after you lot he should go after the Blacks in Birmingham centre that go mugging every night and openly selling drugs.

J. C. , Birmingham.

Dear Sirs,

I watched the fat slob Cook report on the brain dead Carlton TV and I could not believe what I was watching. I have never seen such a badly put together programme for a long time. I hope that the public are not as stupid as the Alien controlled media seem to think and you attracted a lot more members through that load of old cobbles. One more thing, It just shows how scared the powers that be are to put such a bad programme on. When is the NF going on the Internet ? The chances of reaching new members is endless, plus its a great way of keeping members morale up by keeping us up to date.

D. R. , London

(Editors reply- as you probably know by now, we are now on-line via the Internet, and the enquiries are coming in at a steady rate.)

Dear Sir,

You were not given much chance to say what you had come for before the Anti-Nazi league attempted to shout you down in Dover, yet I thought this was a free Country ? How could I, or anyone else say whether or not I was pleased to see you when you were allowed to say so little ? I couldn't even stop to have a quiet talk with any of you. From what I saw, it looked like the Anti-Nazi league could get quite violent. What I want to know is why, after the influx of gypsies, shopkeepers of the most reliable character immediately started complaining about shop lifting ? They said it was by people who spoke a foreign language and who fitted the description of these gypsies. I also know that Social Services could hardly foot the bill. I'll welcome anyone who wants to help us put a stop to that. In fact, I'll give them a marvellous welcome.

Concerned Doverian.

Sir,

What a disgrace it was to find that the local television here in Dover were offering a thousand pounds reward for the identity of the courageous gentleman waving the Union Jack from his balcony during your patriotic demonstration. When will you be coming back to Dover ?

A. Bailey, Dover.

(Editors reply- You will be pleased to know that a regular programme of activity is planned for the area. The fact that you are reading this now indicates that we have been out and about !)

Sir,

Well done with the Internet Site. After searching it extensively, it appears 'good time' Tony and the chattering classes are going to have to face the issues that the NF is discussing. You are the only organisation with the courage to discuss what everyone speaks about in hushed terms over dinner. I have noticed this phenomenon in a number of nations, including France, Australia and Germany. I am a supporter of Pat Buchanan, and feel he is the American Politico (not Ross Perot) who most strongly supports a Nationalist programme. I wish you the best of luck with your endeavors. My prayers are with you.

Mark Schmidt, USA.

Editorial Number 6

Welcome to issue six of The Flame. Apart from the slightly different styles that have been used to produce this issue, the first thing you will notice is that it is late. But as you will see, 1997 was one of the busiest years the party has seen for a long time. Producing a paper such as The Flame can be a difficult task at the best of times, but when the editorial team also double up as leading party officials and organisers, then the task becomes all the more difficult. We are grateful to all who have remained patient with us and during 1998 you can look forward to a number of improvements to the paper, not least will be its frequency. It was pleasing to see the party establish an official site on the Internet in November. If you enjoy Internet access, you may view our pages at the addresses given at the bottom left - hand corner of this page. These sites is due to be expanded over the coming months and it is possible that the main site may be moved to a different address. We will keep supporters informed, both on-line and via the pages of The Flame. 1997 proved to be a successful year for the NF. Challenges and obstacles were overcome and a number of valuable lessons were learnt. 1998 looks set to be even better for our party. The fact is that the NF has survived. Where are some rival organisations now? The Referendum Party is defunct. UKIP collapsed, reformed and will probably collapse again after being trounced by us at Uxbridge. New-Britain re-emerged only to be promptly beaten by us again, this time at Beckenham. The Albion Party fought just one seat in the General Election and then disappeared. Third Way fought just two seats and polled badly. The NDP have polled some of the worst results of any 'patriotic party'. When will these people learn? Of course, the NF does not wish to embark upon trivial arguments or personality clashes. The NF is interested in making friends. There is a welcome awaiting all sincere and patriotic Britons within the home of nationalism in this country...

NF in Dover

Review of 1997 with Party President John Lord.

1997 is a year that will not be easily forgotten. Whilst the NF still enjoys a relatively modest existence within the political structure of this Country, yet again few people could have failed to notice us during 1997.

The year began amid preparations for the General Election. The decision had been taken to restrict our campaign to a small number of key seats in order to conserve party resources. A great deal of effort was put into the contesting of our chosen seats and come May 1st, party members were on the whole pleased with the results. Following this success came the infamous Cook Report which was designed to divide our party. This attempt on the part of our enemies was a complete failure, and a number of 'own goals' were scored by them. It came as no surprise that hot on the heels of this incident arrived revelations within the Sunday press regarding one Andy Carmichael. That he had been a fully salaried MI5 operative planted within the NF raised some eyebrows given the fact that he had been vociferous in the failed campaign to 'change the name' of the NF back in 1995. Having failed in his bid, he promptly left the NF to join another party. Many other successes were enjoyed by the NF during 1997. The Uxbridge & Beckenham by-elections resulted in a large number of enquiries and new members and was a boost to the local branch.. Meanwhile up in Yorkshire, two new units of the party were formed in Bridlington and in Hull. Typically, November is a busy month within our party and within nationalist politics as a whole. November 1997 proved to be no exception. The month began with our annual conference held in the South Midlands. A number of policy resolutions were debated and voted upon. Attendance was 33% up on last year and an enjoyable time was had by all. The following week, leading officials of the NF laid a wreath at the Cenotaph in Whitehall, London, whilst many other officials and supporters laid wreaths at their local war memorials in remembrance of our war dead. Next remembrance Sunday (Nov.1998) we intend to hold our usual parade at the Cenotaph in Whitehall. This will be the main event of 1998. The Saturday following Remembrance day saw an NF contingent marching in support of local people in Dover. Throughout the year local branches continued with campaigns specific to their local areas. From campaigns against the building of new roads, through to campaigns against Asian gang violence, the NF was there. Even as we go to press, Norwich NF are active in their campaign against asylum seekers being moved into the area. Here's to an even more successful 1998!

News Round Up

Britain's first Muslim MP charged with electoral Fraud

Mohammed Sarwar has been charged with election fraud including late registration of voters, perverting the course of justice, and election expense corruption. Sarwar (45) has been suspended from the Labour Party, accused of action 'grossly detrimental to the party'. He was exposed as having handed over £5000 in a carrier bag to a political opponent.

Police: Treading Eggshells

Head of Camden area police in London, Inspector John Anthony, has attacked liberal pressures, which he says have led to a general drug problem, and reluctance to deal with drunks and beggars. He says that the police no longer practise non-tolerance of unlawful behaviour - not 'treading on eggshells' is the main concern.

Bogus asylum seekers disappear.

Immigration Service Union (ISU) officials say that 55,000 bogus asylum seekers have disappeared, and are unlikely to be caught unless they are arrested by police. The numbers disappearing are increasing, and the ISU says that Government claims to 'get tough' are meaningless, since rejected asylum applications are rarely enforced. Between 1989 & 1996, 250,000 applied for asylum. 10,700 were granted, yet only 13,000 were expelled!

NF demonstrates against Gerry Adams visit to Downing Street

Sinn Fein President Gerry Adams was jeered by an NF contingent when he visited Downing Street in December. Other demonstrators present included a group of ex-servicemen from the Royal British Legion and Loyalists from Ulster.

White teenager murdered by black gang

A gang of 15 savage thugs is being hunted after beating a white teenager to death with baseball bats and wooden clubs. The yobs attacked 19-year-old Shane Thompson with an 'absolutely merciless' barrage of blows after chasing him along a street and through gardens. They cornered him outside a pub and laid into him with such ferocity that one of the bats snapped in half. Horrified residents rushed out to help Shane as he desperately tried to defend himself. He died in hospital hours after the attack in the notorious drug-dealing district of Radford, Nottingham. Police believe the thugs were all black and aged about 16 to 20.

INTO 1998 ...

LOCAL ELECTIONS

During 1998, there will be elections in all Metropolitan Boroughs as well as in London. The NF intends to contest a number of seats in these elections. However, we make no apology for saying that we do need candidates to put themselves forward to stand for the National Front. Qualifications are simple: you must be 21 or older and live within the borough in which the ward we contest falls. For example, St.James Ward falls under Dudley MBC., Princes End falls under Sandwell MBC., Brownhills under Walsall etc. The same applies to London Boroughs. If you are interested in standing, and bearing in mind that the campaign work can be done for you (unless you actually WANT to do it yourself), then please express your interest either to you local organiser, or directly to head office. Those members who have stood before will be called upon to stand again. The NF needs you all. Do not let us down ! Also, keep your eye out for any local council by-elections that may crop up. Some of our best results have come from such elections over the years. Indeed, the NF have come close to winning seats in local council elections on a number of occasions. Make the effort, and secure the survival of our Country.

White Folk Treated with contempt by politicians !

With local elections just around the corner it is perhaps timely to consider those in our country who almost daily suffer indignities and are treated with contempt. Like the elderly and needy of Walsall, in the West Midlands whose hot meals provided by the Council's Meals on Wheels service are likely to be scraped and replaced with sandwiches. Or those who live in crumbling Council properties up and down the land, and cannot get them repaired. Or the pregnant woman who phoned us to say that she had been forced to endure a whole month without heating or hot water because the council could not afford, or couldn't be bothered, to repair the faulty gas boiler (don't worry, a stern phone call to the Authority from the NF soon put matters right). Or the lone parents, made to neglect their children as they are compelled to search for low wage employment, in the face of drastic benefits cuts. These are OUR people, OUR racial stock, Support the National Front, and put an end to the betrayal of our nation

EURO - ELECTIONS

Again, candidates are asked to submit details to head office for these elections as soon as possible. At this stage we aim to contest key seats, particularly in South-East England, The Home Counties and The West Midlands. We are awaiting with some degree of interest as to precisely which system of voting is finally adopted for these elections, though it is a virtual certainty that a 'closed list' system of proportional representation will be used. There remains the possibility of course that deposits might be raised. Opinion from some quarters maintains that deposits might be raised to as much as five thousand pounds per seat in an attempt to keep us out. However at this stage, and given the current rules, we fully intend to contest these elections and we have opened a national appeal to raise funds for them. Our initial target is five thousand pounds. Please give generously. And bear in mind that just twelve thousand pounds will enable us to contest enough seats to qualify for a Party Election Broadcast. Such things are not beyond the realms of possibility if you do all you can to assist us. The British people have no where else to turn to. Only the National Front is sufficiently well-established to win Britain back for our race and nation.

Euro-Elections: Registration of political parties

As expected, the Labour Party have introduced safeguards in order to try and prevent the election of what they term 'extremist' candidates in the European Elections. In their recently published European Parliamentary Elections Bill we find the following clause(3-8:A) " 'registered party' means a party registered under any enactment providing for the registration of political parties" Needless to say, the Bill does not divulge any details as to how they intend to register political parties. Naturally, they will bring this particular enactment in after the original Bill has become law. So just how do they intend to 'register political parties'? Someone cynical might suggest by specifying that parties must contest a certain number of seats, perhaps 50, at a thousand pounds(or more) per seat !! Remember that the system of PR. that will be used in these Euro elections is the same one that they intend to use in general elections ! By-By smaller parties(including US), joke candidates, independents e.t.c., say hello to the totalitarian state ! You read it here first.
